

Cookin' with Carol

A Jasty Treat!

Frozen Oreo Pie

CRUST:

30 Oreo Sandwich Cookies

6 T butter, melted

FILLING:

1 (16-ounce) chocolate fudge topping

1/2 gallon almond or chocolate drop mint ice cream

1 (8-ounce) whipped topping

CRUST: Place cookies in food processor or blender with a metal blade and process until they are reduced to fine crumbs. Add melted butter and mix until combined. Press 2 cups of the mixture into the bottom of 2 pie plates. ~~Reserve remaining mixture.~~

FILLING: Spread chocolate fudge topping over crumbs. Soften ice cream slightly and carefully spread over fudge layer. Freeze until firm. Spread whipped topping over ice cream. Sprinkle reserved crumb mixture over top. Cover with foil and freeze until firm.

When wrapped airtight, dessert can be frozen for several months, if you can keep from eating it!

By the way...I am always honored by your introduction of friends, family and neighbors in need of my Professional Real Estate Assistance!

Carol Sellwood of Sellwood Homes

Ph (530) 409-2014 CarolSellwood@gmail.com SellwoodHomes.weebly.com

Do you know what else is Jasty?

Interest Rates! The MBA expects the 30-year fixed-rate mortgage will break above four percent, from its current average around 3.5 percent, in the second quarter of 2013, and will rise to 4.5 percent by the end of the year. So don't wait! Get in on the low interest rates NOW!

